

Common Copyright Misconceptions about Fair Use

Anything goes for education?

Use in a class - whether in person, online, or in an assignment - doesn't give you carte blanche.

Copyright Policy

Augie's copyright policy can be found here:
<http://www.augustana.edu/x34587.xml>

You can also use a fair use calculator like the one found here:
<http://bit.ly/1ShRQN2>

I can play movies on campus to large groups without a problem

Non-profit doesn't mean fair use. There has to be an educational purpose - like a class assignment.

What if I want to show a movie and open it up to the public? (Film fest, etc.)

Frequently, this means that public performance rights need to be obtained for this movie. Check with the library for the proper procedure.

Contact your liaison librarian for more information.