

Be Copyright

Not Copywroing

Picture This

Need images for your presentation? Try a copyright-free graphics service like ImageQuest, found under images on the library's webpage.

Cite it!

Whether in a paper, on a presentation, or in an ad for an intramural event, give recognition where you obtained information or graphics.

Peer-to-peer file sharing (like music) could subject you to civil and criminal liabilities. Augustana's file sharing policy is available here:
<http://bit.ly/1ShPygX>

Civil Infringement

carries penalties
of $750 - $30,000

Copyright owners' rights include the right to reproduce or distribute a copyrighted work. In a file-sharing context, downloading or uploading substantial parts of a copyrighted work without authority constitutes an infringement.

Source: Thomas Tredway Library, Augustana College,
Rock Island, IL 61201