If the student applicant was born before January 1, 1995, or otherwise is determined to be independent for financial aid purposes (see FAFSA guidelines), proceed to question 14; all other applicants should complete the parental information section below.

Parental Information

This section should be completed by the legal parent(s) with whom the student resides. ("Legal parent" is defined as the biological or adoptive parent.) If the student lives in a single-parent household, only the information about that parent should be reported. However, if a divorced or widowed parent has remarried, information about the stepparent is required. If a student's legal parents are not married but are living together, information about both parents is required.

Unusual/Special Circumstances

14. Families occasionally have unusual expenses/circumstances beyond their control. Unusual expenses such as high medical or dental expenses, substantial reduction in family income since the 2016 tax year, parent in college, childcare or other special circumstances in some instances can be considered when determining financial aid. However, the FAFSA must be filed for such circumstances to be considered. Additional forms also will be required to address these circumstances in more detail. Please attach a separate note should you have any unusual circumstances. (To determine whether you should complete a special circumstance form, call the Office of Financial Aid at 309-794-7207 to speak with your financial aid counselor.)
