Historical Sketch

The Trinity Lutheran Church was organized on August 12, 1855 as First Evangelical Lutheran Church. It was founded by Rev. Solomon Ritz, who, a few months earlier, had come to Tipton as a missionary. At the time of its founding the congregation had 10 members.

Content Note

The collection consists of 4 pages of typewritten history of the congregation up to late 1930s written by Rev. Max B. Pinkert for Tipton Celebration souvenir pamphlet on July 4, 5 1940.

The church records are a part of the Lutheran Church in American Archives, Chicago (since 1962).
