

Tredway Library Prize for First-Year Research: Application Form

Name: _____

E-mail address: _____

Telephone number: _____

Major(s), if known: _____

How did you learn about this prize? _____

_____

Title of paper: _____

_____

Style manual used for citations: _____

Course for which paper was written: _____

Term in which course was completed: _____

Faculty member for whom paper was written: _____

Signature of student: _____

Date: _____

Tredway Library Prize for First-Year Research: Checklist

Below is a checklist of the items needed to apply for the Tredway Library Prize for First-Year Research. Please complete the checklist and submit it along with the rest of the application.

The student should submit the following items:

_____ Application form

_____ Three complete copies of the paper, including bibliography. (Please do not put your name, your professor's name, or the course number/title on the paper)

_____ Two- to three-paragraph reflection written by the student about their research experience, including, but not limited to, skills employed and learned, problems encountered, and how those problems were addressed. (Please put the title of your research paper, but not your name, your professor's name, or your course number, on the reflection)

_____ A copy of the course description for the class in which the paper was written

_____ A copy of the assignment sheet for the paper

The student should request a statement of support from the faculty member for whom the paper was written. It should be submitted to Christine Aden, Head of Circulation.

_____ I have requested that the faculty member for whom I wrote this paper submit a statement of support.