Provenance

The papers of Samuel Magnus Hill (1851-1920) were presented to the Augustana College Library in 1969 by Ramsey Hill, a Swedish instructor at Augustana and grandson of Samuel Magnus Hill. Material in boxes 5 and 6 were donated by Liz Askey, S.M.H's granddaughter, in 2005 and contains autobiographical essays, family letters and photographs.

The separation of the papers into Swedish and English has been retained. The arrangement of the papers into lectures, sermons, articles and speeches had been previously imposed and remains practically unaltered. It is not known who arranged the papers in this manner.

Biographical Sketch

Samuel Magnus Hill was born in Sund, Östergötland, Sweden on January 10, 1851 to Samuel and Maria (Ottar) Samuelson. The family emigrated to Altona, Illinois in 1868. Shortly after arriving in the U.S. the family changed their surname to Hill. The family eventually moved to Paxton, Illinois and finally they settled in Chariton, Iowa.

Samuel enrolled at Augustana College in 1875 at the age of 24 and graduated in 1879. He worked throughout his college years to support himself and pay the tuition. His parents were poor and unable to provide any financial assistance.

After graduation, Samuel went to Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter, Minnesota to teach music and other subjects. Shortly, after his arrival at Gustavus, the College decided to change to co-education and in the first class of girls, he met Julie Johnson whom he married in 1882. Hill stayed at Gustavus for three years.

In 1882, Hill was called by the Illinois conference to go to Utah and serve as a missionary among the Swedes in the Mormon Church. He remained in Utah until 1884, when he accepted a teaching position at the Luther Academy in Wahoo, Nebraska. Hill taught a wide variety of subjects at the Academy, but history, the Swedish language and literature were his main subjects. After the President resigned, Hill agreed to take over the administration of the Academy as acting president, a position he held for 15 years. Hill served Luther Academy for 31 years.

In 1901, he traveled to Sweden and wrote a travel description entitled "Sverige resan," which was published in the Nebraska paper The Omaha Bee.

Hill was ordained in 1917, and upon his resignation from teaching he accepted a call from the Swedish Lutheran Church in Colton, Oregon. During his years as a pastor, he also spent time writing poetry and contributing articles to the Swedish-American press. During World War I, he published a collection of poetry Uggletoner i Vargatider (Portland, 1916.) He also served as contributing editor to the journal Ungdomsvännan.

Hill passed away on June 5, 1920 in Elgaros, Oregon.

Scope and Content

The collection includes a scrapbook of Hill's travels, letters received by Hill, clippings of his writings, sermons, lectures, articles, a variety of songs and poems by Hill and other persons, and material from Hill's service as a Lutheran missionary in Salt Lake City.

The scrapbook of Hill's travel to Sweden in 1901 (missing pp. 28-62) contains photographs, letters from friends, misc. brochures and other memorabilia and Hill's own travel diary.

The letters Hill received are both professional and personal. For a period of time, he used the back side of letters he received for his own poetry. Many of the poems are also tributes to deceased friends, or memorials for special anniversary days and/or patriotic days.

Hill's sermons are both in English and Swedish and from the period of 1887-1918. The lectures are mostly on the topic of church history and education, but also includes lectures on the topic of alcoholism and temperance from the period 1887-1890.

The articles and speeches are in both English and Swedish and on a wide variety of subjects. Please see detailed folder inventory below. Also included are writings by other people.

The material from Hill's mission work in Salt Lake City includes speeches on the topic of Mormonism, letters from Swedish immigrants, and clippings.

The material contained in box 5 and 6 contain mostly family letters and photographs.
