AUGUSTANA COLLEGE,

ROCK ISLAND, ILLINOIS, MARCH 27, 1929

UPSALA GLEE CLUB TO RENDER CONCERT THURSDAY, APRIL 11

Chorus Is Directed By Conrad Forsberg, New York Musician.

The Upsala college glee club, of East Orange, N. J., which has been styled "more than a college glee club," will give a concert in the Augustana auditorium on Thursday April 11. The inspiration received by Conrad Forsberg from hearing the famous male choruses of Germany and Scandinavia, while traveling in Europe two years ago, resulted in the forming of the East Orange chorus upon his return to this country. Mr. Forsberg proposed to organize and direct a glee club that would emulate the welltrained European choruses in its type of program, finish, and inter-

That he has succeeded admirably is evidenced by the fact that the East Orange choristers have ALL-AUGIE BANQUET aroused public interest not only for the quality of their singing, which has caused leading critics to claim for them more than is usually accorded college glee clubs, but also for the unique character of their program. Many of the songs sung are the fruit of almost endless search in valuable collections in Europe. Gustaf Sundelius, the noted critic of New York, specially commented on the many valuable finds, some of them unknown even to those in the profession, on the program.

DR. E. F. BARTHOLOMEW OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Dr. E. F. Bartholomew, professor of English literature and philosophy at Augustana, celebrated his eighty-third birthday anniversary last Sunday.

Dr. Bartholomew announced his resignation as head of the English and philosophy department about a month ago. The resignation will be effective at the end of the 1929 summer session. For forty-one years he has been a professor at Augustana. He has been in the teaching profession sixty-six years and has studied in Germany at the Universities of Leipzig and Berlin, as well as several educational institutions in United States. He is noted as a theologian and author, as well as an educator, having written a number of books on religious and philosophical topics.

Dr. Bartholomew has two sons, two daughters, and five grandchildren, and one great-grand-

PRESS MEN WILL ATTEND NASHVILLE CONFERENCE

Island, and Paul Westerberg, seminary junior of Sioux City, Iowa, will attend the convention of the National Association of college Newswriters, which will be held in Nashville, Tenn., for one week beginning March 29. For the past year, Colchour and Westerberg have been managing the Augustana Press bureau.

It is thought that their attendance at this conference will make more efficient the news service which has already secured much valuable publicity for the institution. The bureau has an office in the basement of the Denkmann Memorial library, where news is prepared for papers throughout

ORIOLES GIVE CONCERT AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

The Orioles, popular Augie coed chorus, gave a sacred concert at St. John's Lutheran church. Rock Island, last Sunday night. The concert, which was in observance of Palm Sunday, was well received by the large audience of students and tri-city riends who heard the rendition.

Tuesday, the group entertained from Station WOC, Davenport, between 2 and 3 o'clock. The chorus also appeared on the program at the All-Augie banquet last Saturday night.

The Orioles will leave on their twelfth annual tour Friday morning, March 29. At this time they will tour the states of Illinois, Iowa, and Nebraska.

MEN DEBATE SQUADS ARE ELIMINATED IN STATE SEMI-FINALS

Loss Of Negative Team Forces Augie To Drop Hopes For Title.

Hopes that Augustana's men debaters would be the state champions were shattered last Friday night when the Augie affirmative won and the negative lost in the semi-finals of the Illinois Debating conference.

The Augie affirmative team clashed with Wheaton's affirmative in the college chapel and was victorious by the decision of Prof. C. W. Strow, head of the sociology department at Knox college, Galesburg, who was the critic judge. The negative squad was less fortunate in their clash with the powerful Normal affirmative squad. Prof. C. A. Yager, head of the department of speech at the University of Illinois, critic judge, cast his vote in favor of Augie's opponents, thereby elim-

The Augie affirmative debaters were, Paul Schwiebert, Arthur Holmberg, and Neal Rohlfs. The negative debaters were Israel Boxerman, Roy Devinney, and Howard Colson.

Last Thursday night the Monmouth affirmative was defeated by the Augie negative squad at Augustana. Prof. C. F. Lambertson, of the forensic department at Iowa university, was the judge.

Tomorrow afternoon the Augustana affirmative will debate the North Central negative at Augustana. This will complete the dual with North Central, and will be the last debate of the season for a very successful debating squad Morris Colehour, junior of Rock It is hoped that a large crowd will come out for the event.

SENIOR MEN APPEAR IN BLUE AND GOLD JACKETS

Augie students are accustomed to surprises, but the senior men created a sensation of a new sort when they appeared in Students' union Friday morning in jackets of lurid hue. Evidently the mer had conspired to discard their usual conservatism in dress, and the result is these natty jackets of blue trimmed in gold.

The seniors explain that they hope to set a precedent, which may in time become an honored tradition of the institution.

Restrictions To Allow Pledging After First Semester Next Year.

Pledging of freshmen to the social organizations on the Augustana campus is definitely restricted by a resolution recently adopted by the faculty, according to an announcement made vesterday by Prof. Jules Mauritzson, acting-president of Augustana college. Under the terms of the new ruling, pledging of freshmen will be allowed during the second semester of the 1929-30 academic year, and no pledging of freshmen will be permitted thereafter.

The resolution was adopted upon the recommendation of a committee appointed by Acting President Mauritzson to investigate the situation resulting from the ambiguity of the old regulation and to suggest a better ruling. This committee was composed of Professor Mauritzson; Prof. I. M. Anderson, head of the department of Greek language and literature; Miss Dora Carlson, dean of women; Miss Margaret Olmstead, instructor in Latin and mathematics; Prof. F. M. Fryxell, head of the department of geology; and Rev. Herbert Swanson, student counsellor.

The new faculty regulation for pledging reads "That during the academic year of 1929-30 no student be pledged prior to the beginning of the second semester of his attendance at the institution; and that thereafter no freshman or unclassified student be pledged until the beginning of his second year of attendance, and no upperclassman until the beginning of his second semester of attend-

Formerly the rule read "That no freshman or unclassified student be admitted during his first vear." The social organizations maintained that pledging did not constitute "admittance" to the organization. The faculty appears to have recognized the validity of inating Augustana from the state finals. this claim in providing for a gradual change from the present practices of pledging to the new system.

There are at present thirteen organizations on the campus which will be affected by the regulation. This includes six co-ed groups, the Keys, Speeds, Kens, Cogs, Q. T.s, and Phiros; and seven men's organizations, the Pops, Pugs, Pars, Gabs, Onos, Osos, and Roundels. These organizations are primarily of social nature, but are very active in all affairs of the college. Approximately one hundred seventy-five students are members or pledges of these groups.

ISADOR KATZ TO TOUR AS NORTHWESTERN DEBATER

Isador Katz of Rock Island, a former Augie student who is now studying law at Northwestern university, Evanston, is one of the members of the debating squad which will represent the university on a three weeks trip during which debates are scheduled with twelve leading universities of the Middle West and East, Katz has been on the debate team since his first year at Northwestern, and was very prominent in forensic activities at Augie.

He has received an important scholarship at Northwestern, and has the reputation of being the best debater and one of the leading law student of the school.
