Faculty Reference Questions.

Name of Applicant: _____

Name of Reference: _____

Department: _____

Based on your knowledge of the candidate, please answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this reference.

1. How well do you know this student?
2. Please comment on the student's maturity, responsibility, and integrity.
5. Do you believe that this student will engage actively in discussions during Honor Council meetings, ask good questions, regularly attend hearings, and treat confidential matters seriously?
7. Do you think this student practices good study skills, understands the various forms of academic misconduct, seeks out opportunities for intellectual and personal growth, strives for excellence, and shows a strong dedication to and passion for learning?

Note: other than the minimum 3.00 GPA, student application, and two faculty references, there is no specific criteria that a candidate must meet in order to be eligible to serve on the Honor Council. However, candidates may possess certain qualities that are more conducive to serving the Honor Council's purpose, such as the ability to look at cases objectively, a diverse background that helps put things into perspective, and a keen sense of fairness. Any other qualities that the faculty believe will benefit the Honor Council's efficacy are especially welcomed.

Please send completed form to the Office of Academic Affairs, 116 Founders Hall, by 4:00 PM on Friday, March 8, 2019.

If you have questions, you may email honor-code@augustana.edu or refer to Section 5.3 of the Honor Code.
