

VIKING GUIDES

Volunteering for Admissions at Augustana is a terrific way to learn more about Augustana and show your Augie pride! If you are interested in volunteering for Admissions, please contact the Student Volunteer Coordinator, Kierstyn Rogers (kierstynrogers20@augustana.edu), for more information!

Job Description:

- Give tours of the campus to prospective students on regular school days, group visit days, or other special event days (you can find and sign up for times that work with your schedule!)
- Eat lunch with prospective students and their families in the Gerber Center Dining Hall
- Volunteer on campus visit days to direct traffic, check in families, or help with other similar tasks
- Give your expertise on what you are involved in on campus and why you chose Augustana
- Be a good representative of Augustana College

Volunteering is a stepping stone to being hired in Admissions. The more often you volunteer, the more likely you are to be hired. We also offer small incentives throughout the year such as t-shirts, food, and free drinks from The Brew.
